A Gentle Reminder About Holy Communion.

We kindly ask parishioners who attend Mass with family or friends who are not Catholic to let them know that Holy Communion is reserved for those who are fully initiated into the Catholic Church and properly prepared to receive it. Those who are not receiving Holy Communion are warmly invited to come forward with their arms crossed over their chest to receive a blessing from the priest or an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. Thank you for your understanding, for sharing this with your guests, and for helping to preserve the reverence of the Holy Eucharist while respecting the beliefs and practices of the Catholic Church.

Reverence in Gods House.

To preserve the silence and reverence for the Sacred Liturgy and The Holy Eucharist, please remember to manage your mobile devices.

- Please turn off/silence your mobile phone before entering the Church.
- Please Refrain from making calls or texting within the Church.
- please step outside the Church if you must make an emergency call.

This refers to all times you are inside the Church, not just during Mass.

Liskeard Church Safety Notice.

The work has started on the wall at Liskeard Church. Please avoid visiting the Presbytery or going behind the Church for any reason.
Due to health and safety.

Thank you, Fr Cyriacus.

FIRST READING – FROM THE BOOK OF SIRACH 27:30-28:7

'Forgive your neighbour the wrong he has done, and then your sins will be pardoned when you pray.

Anger and wrath, these are abominations, and the sinful man will hold them fast.
The one who seeks vengeance will be paid vengeance from the Lord, and he who keeps a record will have his own sins recorded.
Forgive your neighbour the wrong he has done, and then your sins will be pardoned when you pray.
Does one person harbour anger against another and yet seek for healing from the Lord?
Does he have no mercy towards someone like himself and yet pray concerning his own sins?
If he himself, being flesh, maintains wrath, who will make atonement for his sins?
Remember the end of your life and cease from enmity, remember destruction and death and be true to the commandments.
Remember the commandments and do not be angry with your neighbour;
remember the covenant of the Most High and overlook error.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM.

Ps 103(102):1-2. 3-4. 9-10. 11-12. ℟8

The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger and rich in mercy.

SECOND READING - A READING FROM THE LETTER OF ST PAUL TO THE ROMANS.

'Whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's.' 14:7-9

Brothers and Sisters: None of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. For if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

THE HOLY GOSPEL - ACCORDING TO MATTHEW. 18:21-35

'I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven.'

At that time: Peter came up and said to Jesus, 'Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?' Jesus said to him, 'I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven.
'Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, "Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything." And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, "Pay what you owe." So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, "Have patience with me, and I will pay you." He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow servants saw what had taken place they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, "You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?" And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart.'

THE CREED

"I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (BOW)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come."

Amen.

Prayer Before Holy Communion

Dear Lord, may I receive you in this communion
With open arms,
And a loving, contrite heart,
So that I may be filled with Your grace,
For my good and Your glory!
Amen.

Prayer After Holy Communion

ANIMA CHRISTI SANTIFICA MAE

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within your Wounds hide me
Permit me not to be separated from you.
From the malignant enemy, defend me.
At the hour of my death,
call me and bid me to come to you.
That with your saints I may praise you
Forever and ever.
Amen.
